

Destination: Burgundy, France

Dates: September 16 to 30, 2017

Description of Trip: The Chateau de St. Albain in Burgundy is used as a bridge to the community of Burgundy and used as a community and retreat center for outreach activities, camps, and Bible teaching. If you are a “hands-on” kind of person looking to serve the Lord on a Short Term Mission Team, this team from Grace Church will be going to the Chateau de St Albain from September 16th to September 30th, 2017 to work on several projects to help the Chateau meet new government standards for handicapped accessibility.

Team: The team will be led by Marlin Weaver who served as a missionary at the Chateau for 25 years with his wife, Sue. The ideal team-member will exhibit the following:

- A commitment to Jesus Christ
- The ability to be flexible
- A willingness to complete the work projects we are tasked with in a manner that honors Christ.
- A demonstrated commitment to share the gospel when the opportunity is provided and engage whole-heartedly in the ministry at the Chateau.

Cost Estimate: $1300-$1600 (Subject to change)

France: “Since France has one of the lowest percentages of Evangelical Christians in the world (1/30th the percentage of Christians in the United States), the Château serves the vital role of providing a location where Christians can spend time with those who don’t yet know Jesus Christ, build relationships, and partner with other believers to further God’s work in France.”
