

"I Want In". Have you ever been in a really long line? You know, the kind that wraps around a building twice or seemingly stretches for a mile. These lines usually lead to a really Fancy Restaurant, a Championship Sporting Event, or Opening Night at one of those long awaited sci-fi movies. In each case, these long lines signify the same thing...people "want in." They want in so they can be a part of all that is happening inside. And they will sometimes do whatever it takes to actually "get in."

But have you ever had to stand in one of these long lines...to get into church? Probably not. More likely, you've wondered how you could "get out" of church sooner so you could get to the front of one of those other long lines.

Starting on September, 18 the Horizon ABF will examine the First Century church to see what made people "want in" to their community. And we'll examine our own community here at Grace to see how we can make it one that people truly "want in."

You are also welcome to join us in the Art Room on Sunday, September 11th as we kick-off our ABF season with a pot-luck breakfast. Please stop in to meet the class.
